Designer

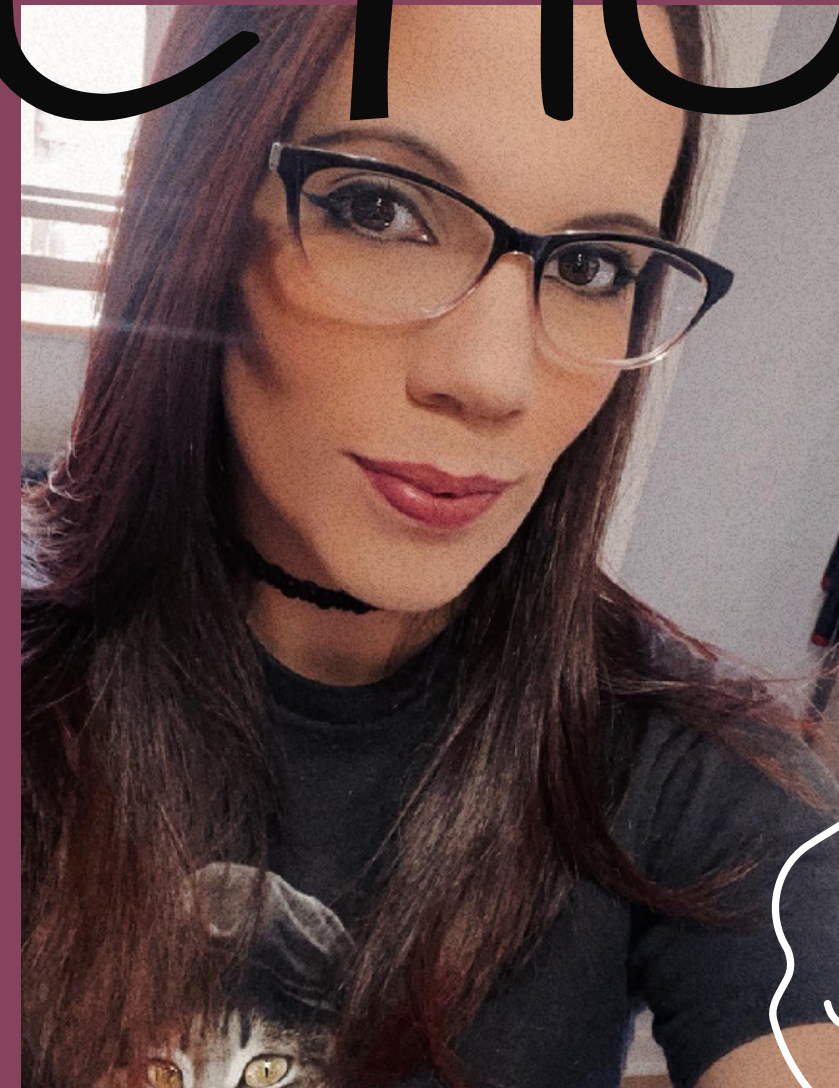

Welcome to my little part of the universe! I'm the mind behind Sunny Artistic Studio. I'm an artist, web designer, and photographer. My name is Antonia Bate, and my unique experiences in life have made me the creative individual I am.

I have always been a bit of a free and expressive spirit, but when I started my college career at 29, I set out to be an accountant, of all things. After a year of prerequisites, business management, and accounting classes, I realized that was not the path for someone like me. I searched programs at different colleges and universities but almost gave up my search as my frenzied mind simply couldn't choose what I wanted to do. It wasn't until I created an entire design package for my child's birthday and had requests from many other parents to share the materials that I realized how much I enjoyed something I was good at.

Since then, I have created countless logos, labels, and designs for friends and their businesses. In less than a year, I will have a bachelor's in graphic design. I have a passion for creating and seeking endless knowledge. I will forever be a work in progress, and I plan on enjoying my growth journey as an artist and person. I hope you enjoy this tiny peek into my creatively chaotic mind!

rationale

Paws and Claws Holistic Animal Clinic is a treatment center that takes a natural approach to caring for pets because they're more than just pets; they're family. The red and heart shape in the paw pad reminds owners of the love they have for their furry family and ensures clients that Paws and Claws have the same priorities. The realistic paw shape represents the natural and holistic care the clinic offers. The simple shapes and font make the logo easily recognizable for clients and give it the simple back-to-basics feel that the clinic's natural remedies offer. In addition, the straightforward design of the logo makes it versatile and easily scaled for everything from shirts to stationary and even billboards.
